Responsive Reading:

I fear nothing, my God, for you have made me yours.

You know me by name.

If I must pass through a raging river, you will be at my side.

I will not be overwhelmed.

If I must pass through a roaring fire, the flames will not burn me.

I will not be devoured.

My God, my Savior— you purchased my freedom from slavery.

You paid a high price!

Because I am precious in your sight, because you love me—

you are always watching over me.

You gather your beloved people to you from every part of the earth—

East, West, North, and South.

We are called by your name, for you made us.

You created us for your glory.
